Two for One Offer

After a winter packed full of renovations, Butterfly World near St Albans is ready to open its wings and amaze visitors of all ages this Spring. From 29th April 2010, Phase II of this evolving project will be open for all to see. Once the massive rainforest biome is completed in the Autumn, 2011, this will be the biggest butterfly experience in the world - and it's right on your doorstep. A project dedicated to the conservation of the butterfly species and home to hundreds of plants and mini-beasts, Butterfly World with its tropical butterfly house, brand new butterfly breeding house, chrysalis-shaped lake, insect study centre and spectacular designer gardens is a fun and educational day out for all the family.
